Office of Legislative Counsel

Friday - 10 January 1958

Mr. Helmlich of the staff of the House Committee on Un-American Activities called and said the galley proofs were ready. These were picked up and delivered to the DCI.

Mr. Macomber, Assistant Secretary for Congressional Relations, Department of State, returned my call. We dealt with numerous subjects including the request of Representative Coffin for briefing documents. Macomber said he thought he had better talk to Boyd Crawford, Director of the House Foreign Affairs Committee staff.

Mr. Macomber queried whether Senator Gore had ever contacted us. I informed him that he had not and we were simply going to wait.

Mr. Macomber also mentioned the fact that the DCI had talked with Congressman Cannon and that Mr. Macomber might suggest to Mr. Dulles possible candidates for a subcommittee for certain ICA appropriations within the House Appropriations Committee.

Mr. Macomber thanked me for my alert to him on the call from Congressman Hillings with respect to the proposed visit of the Russian consul to the Congressman.
